BIO

As an author, I publish work in multiple mediums and genres. I have sold nonfiction, fiction, poetry, photonovels, songs, and scripts in genres including literary fiction, fantasy, historical fiction, humor, essay, academic, pop magazines, classic poetic forms, avant garde, theological and philosophical markets, and tourism.

As a producer, I've had a hand in some of those short films and photonovels and songs that have sold.

I call Ozark Christian College my alma mater and received a Bachelor in Theology, emphases on rhetoric. They offer no creative writing classes.
